NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES AND POLICIES, EFFECTIVE 01-1-17

AS REQUIRED BY FEDERAL LEGISLATION, THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW healthcare INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED, AND HOW YOU CAN OBTAIN ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

This notice applies to all of the paper and electronic records of your care maintained by Creative Spirits Behavioral Health, Inc., whether created by yourself, Creative Spirits Behavioral Health personnel, or records acquired from outside resources such as other clinicians involved in your care and laboratory reports.

WAYS THE PRACTICE MAY USE AND DISCLOSE YOUR INFORMATION

The following categories describe ways that we use and share your confidential information. Confidential information includes Protected Health Information (PHI) (information that could be used to identify you). Not every use of disclosure in a category is listed. However, all of the ways we are permitted to use and disclose information will fall within one of the following categories.

A. DISCLOSURES WHICH REQUIRE AUTHORIZATION

Psychotherapy notes are handled separately under HIPAA and have additional protections. Specifically, the regulations state that in most instances a practice must obtain an authorization for any use or disclosure of psychotherapy notes. No authorization is needed to carry out treatment, payment, healthcare operations, or the uses listed in routine situations. All other circumstances require a valid authorization from you for use and disclosure.

Confidential information may be released for payment and healthcare operations only to health insurance plans and their agents, as well as business associates of the practice. The definition of a health insurance plan does not include life insurance companies, automobile insurance companies, or workers' compensation carriers. These are not covered under HIPAA. If you would like information submitted to one of these companies, an authorization will be required, unless it is already mandated by state or federal law.

B. ROUTINE SITUATIONS

1. For Treatment: We may use information about you in order to provide you with proper medical treatment or services. Treatment is when we provide, coordinate, or manage your healthcare and other services related to your healthcare. An example of treatment is when we consult with another healthcare provider, such as your primary care physician.
2. For Payment: We may use disclose information about you so that the treatment and services you receive may be billed and payment can be collected from you, an insurance company, or a third party (including a collection agency if necessary). For example, we may give your health insurance plan information about services you received from our practice, so your health insurance can pay us or reimburse you for the services. We may also tell your health insurance plan about a treatment you are going to receive, in order to obtain prior approval or determine if your plan will cover the treatment.
3. For Healthcare Operations: We may use and share information about you for administrative functions necessary to run the practice and promote quality care. We may share information with business associates who provide services necessary for our operations, such as transcription companies or billing services. We will contractually bind these third parties to protect your information. Also, we may permit your health insurance plan or other providers to review records that contain information about you to assist them in improving the quality of service provided to you.

4. Communicating with You and Others Involved in Your Care: We may contact you to provide appointment reminders, information about treatment alternatives, or other health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you. In certain situations, we may share information about you with a friend or family member who is involved in your care or payment for your care unless you have requested that such disclosures not occur and we have agreed. Information disclosed will be directly relevant to such person's involvement with your care or payment related to your care. Whenever possible, this person will be identified by you. However, in emergencies or other situations in which you are unable to indicate your preference, we may need to share information about you with other individuals or organizations to coordinate your care or notify your family.

C. SPECIAL SITUATIONS

1. As Required By Law: We will disclose information about you when required to do so by federal, state or local law. For example, we may release information about you in response to a valid court subpoena.
2. Health Oversight Activities: We may use disclose information to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law. For example, these oversight activities include: audits, investigations, inspections, and licensure. These activities are necessary for the government to monitor the healthcare system, government programs, and compliance with civil rights laws.
3. For Judicial or Administrative Proceedings: If you are involved in a court proceeding, and a request is made for information about the professional services that you have received within our practice and the records thereof, such information may be privileged under state law. We will not release information without the written authorization of you or your legal representative, or in instance of issuance. This may also be the case in the instance of a court subpoena, which requires the provision of such information, which you have been properly notified. In response, you have not opposed the court subpoena within the legally specified format and timeframe, or in the instance of the issuance of a court order compelling me to provide Protected Health Information (PHI). This privilege does not apply when you are being evaluated for a third party or where the evaluation is court-ordered. You will be informed in advance if this is the case.
4. To Avert Serious Threat to Health of Safety: We may disclose your confidential mental health information to any person without authorization if we reasonably believe that disclosure will avoid or minimize imminent danger to your health or safety, or the health or safety of any other individual. These disclosures may be to law enforcement officials to respond to a violent crime or to protect the target of a violent crime. For example, threats of harming another individual may be reported to appropriate authorities.
5. Worker's Compensation: If you file a worker's compensation claim with certain exceptions, we must make available at any stage of the proceedings, all PHI information in our possession that is relevant to the particular injury in the opinion of the Kentucky Department of Labor, to your employer, your representative, and the Department of Labor upon request.
6. Public Health Risk: We may disclose information about you for public health activities. These activities generally include, but are not limited to, the following:

YOUR RIGHTS AS A PATIENT

In addition to provisions by the practice to protect your confidential information, you are entitled to six (6) specific rights as a patient. Request forms are available for your assistance at Creative Spirits Behavioral Health, Inc.

1. You have the right to request restrictions on certain uses and disclosures. You have the right to request a restriction or limitation on the use and sharing of information about you for treatment, payment, administrative functions, or with individuals involved in your care. To request restrictions, you must make your request in writing to us. In your request, you must tell us: (1) what information you want to limit; (2) whether you want to limit use, disclosure, or both; and (3) to whom you want it to apply. We are not required to agree to your request. If we agree, we will comply with your request unless the information is needed to provide you with emergency treatment.
2. You have the right to receive confidential communications. You have the right to request that we communicate with you in a certain way or at a certain location. For example, you can ask that we only contact you at work or at a post office box. To request confidential communications, you must make your request in writing to me. Your request must specify how or where you wish to be contacted. We will not ask you for the reason and will seek to accommodate all reasonable requests.
3. You have the right to inspect and obtain copies. You have the right to review and obtain copies of information that may be used to make decisions about your care. Usually, this includes medical and billing records, but does not include psychotherapy notes, information compiled in reasonable anticipation of a legal action or proceeding; and confidential information related to a certain laboratory tests under Clinical Laboratory Improvement Amendments (CLIA). To inspect and copy information that may be used to make a decision about you, you must submit your request to me in writing. You may be charged a fee for the costs of copying, mailing or other supplies associated with your request. In the following circumstances we may deny your request to inspect and copy information:

- a. We have determined, in the exercise of professional judgment, that the access requested is reasonably likely to endanger the life or physical safety of you or another person
 - b. The information makes reference to another person (unless the other person is a healthcare provider) and we have determined, in the exercise of professional judgment, that the access requested is reasonably likely to cause substantial harm to the other person
 - c. The request for access is made by your representative and we have determined, in the exercise of professional judgment, that the provision of access to your personal representative is reasonably likely to cause substantial harm to you or another person. If you are denied access, you may request a review of the denial by another licensed medical practitioner. We will comply with the outcome of the review. If your request only concerns billing information, you may call Creative Spirits Behavioral Health, Inc., 502-254-9555.
4. You have the right to amend confidential information. If you feel that the information we have about you is incorrect or incomplete, you may ask me to amend the information. You have the right to request an amendment for as long as the information is kept by or for our practice. To request an amendment, your request and a reason that supports your request, must be made in writing and submitted to me. We may deny your request for an amendment if it is not in writing or does not include a reason to support the request. In addition, we may deny your request if you ask me to amend information that:
- a. Was not created by our practice, unless the person or entity that created the information is no longer available to make the amendment. In such instances we would consider the request
 - b. Is not part of the information kept by or for our practice
 - c. Is not part of the information which you would be permitted to inspect and copy
 - d. Is accurate and complete
5. You have the right to receive an accounting of disclosures of confidential information. You may ask to receive an accounting of certain disclosures made about you that were not related to the routine uses listed above. To request this list or accounting of disclosures, you must submit your request in writing to us. Your request must state a time period that may not be longer than six (6) years and indicate what format you want the list (for example on paper or in an electronic file). The first list you request will be free. For additional lists, we may charge you the cost of providing the list. we will notify you of the estimated cost involved and you may choose to withdraw or modify your requests because any costs are incurred. Disclosures do not have to be made when those disclosures are:
- a. To carry out treatment, payment and healthcare operations
 - b. To individuals of confidential information about them
 - c. As a result of assigned authorization
 - d. For the practice's directory or to persons involved in your care
 - e. For national security or intelligence purposes; or
 - f. To correctional institutions or law enforcement officials

6. You have the right to obtain a paper copy of this Notice upon request. Even if you have requested an electronic copy, we will provide you with a paper copy of this Notice at your request.

OUR PRACTICE DUTIES

In addition to your rights as a patient, we as a practice have duties to protect your confidential information and inform you of changes to protection measures. We are required by law to maintain the privacy of confidential information and provide you with notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to such information. We are required to abide by the terms of this Notice currently in effect.

CHANGES TO THIS NOTICE

I reserve the right to revise or change provisions on this Notice. I will make the new Notice provisions effective for all confidential information I maintain. I will promptly revise and distribute my Notice whenever there is a change to the uses or disclosures, your rights, and my duties, or other privacy practices stated in this Notice. I will mail updates of my notice to all active patients. Patients who are inactive at the time of mailing may receive an updated copy at their next scheduled appointment. A copy of the current Notice will be available throughout my practice. The Notice will contain the effective date on the top of the first page.

COMPLAINTS

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with me or with the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services. All complaints must be submitted or verified in writing. You have specific rights under the Privacy Rule. You will not be penalized for filing a complaint.

OTHER USES OF INFORMATION

Other uses and disclosures of information not covered by this notice or the laws that apply to my practice will be made only with your written permission. If you provide my practice with specific permission to use or disclose information about you, you may revoke that permission, in writing, at any time. If you revoke your permission, I will no longer use or disclose information about you for the reasons covered by your written authorization. You understand that we are unable to take back any disclosures that have already been made with your permission and that I am required to retain our records of the care that we provided to you.

NOTICE OF OFFICE POLICIES AND PROCEDURES, EFFECTIVE 01-1-17

PURPOSE OF THIS INFORMATION

In order for us to provide the best care possible, you must have as much pertinent information as possible. If you have any questions or concerns about the healthcare or business practices of our office, please let us know.

PRIVACY AND RELEASE OF INFORMATION

Services you receive in this office are confidential, except in the circumstances listed below:

1. Threats of harm to self or others
2. Abuse of a child, vulnerable adult, or developmentally disabled person
3. A court order to release information
4. Subpoena of treatment records by an attorney. If you do not want this information released, you must obtain a protective order from the court within fourteen (14) days.
5. If you will be applying your health plan, including some or all of your record of treatment, in order for our carrier to pay for services. By signing the Acknowledgement of Receipt of Office Policies and Procedures form, you consent to release of that information to your health plan.
Psychotherapy notes are handled separately under HIPAA and have additional protections.
6. If you are party to child custody litigation at any time in the future, the court may order release of information about your treatment in this office.
7. In some instances, as provided by the law of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, information about your healthcare may be exchanged with other healthcare professionals involved in your treatment.

In circumstances other than these, we will not release information about your treatment without your authorization.

EMERGENCY CONTACT

Messages left on voicemail are retrieved regularly and calls are returned as soon as possible. If you need more rapid attention for your own or someone else's safety, do not delay while waiting for us to return your telephone call. Please call 911 or report to the nearest hospital emergency room.

PATIENT RECORDS

An electronic record (file) is kept of services you receive in this office. You have a right to see the record and receive a copy of it upon request. You may ask that factual errors in the record be corrected. You may authorize in writing that copies of the record be released to entities you designate, at your expense, according to charges stipulated by the state law of the Commonwealth of Kentucky. Under certain circumstances where seeing the record may put a patient or other person at risk, we may redact certain information in the record and/or require that you review the record in consultation with another healthcare provider. You may receive an accounting of non-routine uses and disclosures of your record. You may receive a free copy of your record and a free accounting of non-routine disclosure(s) each year. Please contact Valant Medical Solutions, Inc. to obtain these documents. They will require your request to be in writing:

SECURITY PROCEDURES

We make reasonable efforts to prevent access and disclosure to unauthorized personnel. We keep an ongoing log of potential risks and the physical and electronic safeguards implemented to limit these risks. We require our business associates to abide by all applicable privacy regulations.

INSURANCE BENEFITS AND PATIENT RESPONSIBILITY FOR FEES

Only your health insurance plan can describe your benefits to you or verify provider eligibility. Our administrative staff will help you obtain this information from your health insurance plan, but you must contact the health insurance plan directly for verification. If charges are denied by a health insurance plan, they become entirely your responsibility, even if you had understood from your health insurance plan that the charges would be paid by them.

FEES AND PAYMENT

Payment for charges not covered by your health insurance plan (including co-payments, co-insurance, and deductible amounts) is due in full at the time services are provided unless prior arrangements have been made. Our billing and patient accounts are administered by our Billing Department. Contact our Billing Specialist with any questions or concerns about your account statement.

UNPAID BILLS

It is important that you discuss with us any financial hardship that you may have. Doing so may allow us to arrive at a mutually agreeable payment plan that allows the continuation of your treatment. If this cannot be accomplished, seriously delinquent accounts may be referred to a collection agency and we may have to terminate our relationship as provider and patient. Information necessary to effect collection will be released to the collection agent. Should it become necessary to file suit in this context, you agree to pay reasonable attorney fees. A service fee of 1.5% will be charged on balances more than thirty (30) days past due.

LATE CANCELLATIONS AND MISSED APPOINTMENTS

Failure to keep a scheduled appointment will result in a charge for the full fee of the scheduled appointment, unless you cancel at least 24 hours prior to the appointment time. Please note that insurance health plans do not pay for missed appointment. These charges will be entirely your responsibility. TWO (2) missed appointments will result in dismissal from the practice.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES AND COMPLAINTS

If you have any questions or concerns about your treatment, you are encouraged to discuss them with your clinician. In addition, or instead, the following avenues are available:

1. You may contact your health insurance plan or behavioral health benefit manager;
2. If you feel the problem is serious and/or you have not reached resolution through one of the avenues above, you can file a complaint with the Kentucky Cabinet for Health and Family Services.
3. You may also file complaints regarding privacy practices to the Secretary of the U. S. Department of Health and Human Services.

STATEMENT OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

Our office is dedicated to protect the privacy rights of our patients and the confidential information entrusted to us. The commitment of each employee to ensure that your health information is never compromised is a principal concept of our practice. We may, from time to time, amend our privacy policies and practices, but will always inform you of any changes that might affect your rights.

PROTECTING YOUR PERSONAL HEALTHCARE INFORMATION

We use and disclose the information we collect from you only as allowed by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) and the Commonwealth of Kentucky. This includes issues relating to your treatment, payment, and our healthcare operations. Your personal health information will never otherwise be given to anyone, even family members, without your written consent. You, of course, may give written authorization for us to disclose your information to anyone you choose, for any purpose.

Our offices and electronic systems are secure from unauthorized access and our employees are trained to make certain that the confidentiality of your records is always protected. Our privacy policy and practices apply to all former, current, and future patients, so you can be confident that your protected health information will never be disclosed or released.

COLLECTING PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION

We will only request personal information needed to provide our standard of quality healthcare, implement payment activities, conduct normal health practice operations, and comply with the law. This may include, your name, address, telephone numbers, social security number, employment data, medical history, health records, etc. While most of the information will be collected from you, we may obtain information from third parties if deemed necessary. Regardless of the source, your personal information will always be protected to the full extent of the law.

DISCLOSURE OF YOUR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION

As stated above, we may disclose information as required by law. We are obligated to provide information to law enforcement and governmental officials under certain circumstances. We will not use your information for marketing purposes without your written consent. We may use and/or disclose your health information to communicate reminders about your appointments including voicemail messages, answering machine messages, and postcards.

PATIENT RIGHTS

You have the right to request copies of your healthcare information, to request copies in a variety of formats, and to request a list of instances in which we, or our business associates, have disclosed your protected information for uses other than stated above. All such requests must be in writing. We may charge for your copies in an amount allowed by law. If you believe your rights have been violated, we urge you to notify us immediately. You can also notify the U. S. Department of Health and Human Services.
